

WILLIAM JESSUP
UNIVERSITY

JOB TITLE:

Director of Jessup Online (Administrative Faculty)

DEPARTMENT:

Academics (Jessup Online)

SUPERVISOR:

Vice-Provost

MAJOR PURPOSE:

The Director of Jessup Online will provide dynamic and proactive leadership including planning, oversight, and assessment of the effectiveness of the academic aspects of the University's online learning initiatives. The Director collaborates with Deans and Division Chairs to identify and develop new fully-online programs and individual online courses at both the undergraduate and graduate levels and manage the day-to-day operations of Jessup Online and its staff. The Director will possess the commitment, personal characteristics, insights and abilities not only of a strong faculty member, but also those of an effective administrative and organizational leader. The Director will responsibly represent and implement the academic and administrative policies and decisions of the University. In this context, the successful candidate will:

- Unreservedly adhere to and positively defend the University's Statement of Faith and Community Covenant and Chapters;
- Exemplify the characteristics and qualifications of a biblical leader with a maturing and contagious evangelical Christian faith;
- Articulate how his/her Christian faith affects leadership as well as teaching and scholarship for Jessup Online;
- Effectively represent the academic administration and institutional matters to online faculty and report on online faculty matters to the academic administration;
- Demonstrate a commitment to academic freedom in a faith-affirming academic environment;
- Articulate and engage others in the focused vision of William Jessup University's mission and the integration of Christian faith and learning in disciplines beyond his/her own; and
- Demonstrate a collegial style of leadership and governance with staff under his/her jurisdiction.
- Provide dynamic and proactive leadership.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

1. Academic Leadership to Jessup Online

- a) Promote mission fulfillment, the achievement of the University's core values, and the integration of faith and learning in all aspects of Jessup Online's operations;
- b) Effectively articulate University standards and policies both orally and in writing;
- c) Oversee the process of implementing new fully-online programs with Deans, the Provost Office Team, Enrollment, and University Councils;
- d) Oversee, in collaboration with the Deans, the ongoing revision process for Jessup Online courses;
- e) Develop and oversee online course design procedures, including instructional design processes (syllabi design, learning outcomes and assessment, demand hour equivalency), legal compliance (ADA accessibility, copyright), and LMS course shell design (navigation, usability);

- f) Chair the Online Task Force (a sub-committee of the Academic Council), focusing on increasing overall program quality, as defined by the Online Learning Consortium Scorecard and the Quality Matters™ Rubric and providing appropriate student services;
- g) Represent the interest of Jessup Online within the broader context of the University's priorities, policies, and goals to the online faculty;
- h) Plan appropriate professional development sessions and stimulate academic activities such as online faculty colloquia in cooperation with the Provost's Office.
- i) Serve on academic committees/councils, as appropriate;

2. Staffing and Personnel

- a) Coordinate with the Associate Provost (Faculty Development) in formulating strategies to orient and include fully-online, distance part-time faculty in the University faculty culture;
- b) Supervise Jessup Online course development by allocating and monitoring the workflow of Instructional Designers and Instructional Design Assistants;
- c) Lead, supervise, and develop Jessup Online staff members in a manner that improves overall effectiveness and their knowledge of online learning theory and pedagogical methodology;
- d) Review and assess annual performance evaluations of Jessup Online staff members.

3. General Administration

- a) Consult and collaborate with Deans, Division Chairs, and other administrators in order to coordinate efforts to advance and improve the University's online learning initiatives:
 - 1) Work with the Associate Provost (Educational Effectiveness) to ensure that Jessup Online programs, courses, and procedures meet all accreditation standards; also to monitor the status of the SARA agreement and other regulations that impact online hiring and recruitment practices;
 - 2) Work with the Dean of Academic Support and Resources to evaluate and implement new and innovative technology choices for the University's online learning environment;
 - 3) Work with the Vice-Provost and the Institutional Research Director to monitor and plan strategies to improve retention and graduation rates for fully-online students;
 - 4) Work with the Deans and Division Chairs to select and train online faculty peer mentors within each Division/Department; and
 - 5) Work with the Deans, Division Chairs, and the Registrar to structure each semester's online course schedule.
- b) Prepare and manage operating, capital, and salary budgets for Jessup Online and its staff, including the supervision and approval of purchases;
- c) Perform other duties and responsibilities as assigned by the Provost.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- 1) Master's degree in Education required or relevant discipline (specialization in online education preferred)

- 2) Three years of experience leading a fully-online program in a higher education setting.
- 3) Familiarity with best practices and industry standards in online learning within a higher education context [institutional support, instructional design, curriculum design, online learning theory, faculty training and support, student support services]
