MAJOR PURPOSE:
The role of the Campus Pastor/Director of Campus Ministries is to champion spiritual formation practices and programming for the campus community. Success metrics will be evaluated on the basis of annual goal achievement of responsibilities. Offices relating to and that work in cooperation with this role include the President, Provost, Student Life, faculty, Athletics, University Advancement and Church Relations. The Campus Pastor/Director of Campus Ministries will provide direct supervision and leadership to the University’s Campus Ministries personnel, including the Assistant Director and Coordinator for Campus Ministries. Therefore the Campus Pastor/Director of Campus Ministries must affirm the University Community Covenant in word and deed and be above reproach in their personal character and professional life.

RESPONSIBILITIES
● Coordinating campus-wide spiritual development/formation activities and programs, including chapel services, small group discipleship, local and global outreach, and prayer gatherings.
● Providing pastoral counseling and spiritual direction to students.
● Supervising the strategic planning, assessment, and daily operations of the department and spiritual formation programming.
● Contributing to the assessment of University Learning Goals, particularly in Christian Literacy and Global Citizenship.
● Serving as a member of the Student Life team in collaborative programming and ministry for the development of student leaders.
● Supervisory responsibilities for professional staff members and student leader interns.

Administration
● Oversight of budgets for Campus Ministries and Outreach.
● Serve as a student pastoral care advocate for all students.
● Serve as an active member of the Student Life team, attending and contributing to staff meetings and supporting broader Student Life initiatives and events.
● Serve as an active member of the President’s Council and other committees as assigned.
● Complete other duties as assigned by the supervisor.
