

JESSUP UNIVERSITY

Jessup University's School of Psychology is accepting applications from qualified adjunct faculty to teach in our Masters of Counseling Psychology (MACP) program. We have both on campus (Rocklin) and online (Synchronous) positions available. This robust faith-integrated program includes courses that encompass all the core competencies required by the BBS for licensure as a Marriage and Family Therapist (MFT) and Professional Clinical Counselor (PCC).

Ideal candidates will possess a relevant M.A., M.S or Doctoral degree and be Licensed in the state of California. Previous teaching at the college or graduate level is preferred but not required depending on experience and other qualifications.

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming part of this exciting teaching community, please follow the instructions to apply @ <https://jessup.edu/employment/submit-employment-application/>

Adjuncts are needed for the following courses:

PSYC 530 Essential Counseling Skills & Treatment Planning
PSYC 531 Advanced Counseling Theories & Individual Therapy
PSYC 560 Law and Ethics
PSYC 540 Life Span Development/Aging & Long-Term Care
PSYC 550 Psychopathology
PSYC 691 Assessment Measures & Techniques
PSYC 521 Child and Adolescent Therapy & Abuse Reporting
PSYC 522 Couples and Marital Therapy & Domestic Violence
PSYC 520 Family Systems Therapy
PSYC 523 Crisis, Trauma & Community Mental Health
PSYC 575 Career Development & Career Counseling
PSYC 630 Group Therapy: Theory and Practice
PSYC 690 Research Methods
PSYC 631 Addictions Theory & Therapy
PSYC 680 Psychopharmacology
PSYC 641 Human Diversity
PSYC 642 Human Sexuality
PSYC 675 Practicum
PSYC 621 Advanced Child & Family Therapy
PSYC 622 Advanced Couples & Marital Therapy

