

Jessup University: “Donors Bill of Rights”

1. To be fully informed of Jessup’s mission, of the way the university intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
2. To be informed of the identity of those serving on the Jessup governing board of trustees, executive departments and university administration; to expect the President's Cabinet Team and the Board of Trustees to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
3. To have access to Jessup's most recently available financial statements.
4. To be assured all gifts, contributions and donations will be used for the purposes for which they were given to Jessup, and in accordance with God’s biblical instruction and Christ’s proclaimed principles.
5. To receive appropriate acknowledgement, recognition and contribution receipts from the Jessup Advancement office; to honor those who desire to remain anonymous in their giving to Jessup.
6. To be assured that information about each Jessup donation will be handled with respect and confidentiality to the extent provided by the law, and in great respect to God’s biblical instructions.
7. To expect that all relationships with individuals representing Jessup to each donor will be professional in nature.
8. To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, students or employees of Jessup.
9. To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from any university mailing lists.
10. To feel free to ask questions when making a donation - and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.
