

Bishop Parnell Lovelace Jr.

Parnell is the senior pastor of Center of Praise Ministries in Sacramento and has been described as an apostolic strategist, communicator, teacher, thinker, and progressive leader. He serves as a mentor and friend among multitudes of pastors, trans-denominationally reaching people of all communities.

He earned his Ph.D. in Intercultural Studies at the Cook School of Intercultural Studies from Biola University. He is an adjunct professor at Talbot School of Theology, where he leads the African American Ministry doctoral program. He is a senior fellow with the American Leadership Forum, the CEO of Lovelace Leadership Connection, Inc., and a certified church consultant with the Society for Church Consulting. He and his wife Dianna are proud parents of a son and daughter and proud grandparents of one grandchild.
