

Shanti Landon

Shanti was elected to the Placer County Board of Supervisors in November 2022 after serving as the district director to Placer County Supervisor Robert Weygandt for more than five years. During her tenure there, she focused on policy analysis and development, constituent relations, and coordinating with various local officials and departments on county issues.

She earned her bachelor's degree in journalism with a minor in religious studies from California State University, Sacramento. She has held a variety of roles including freelance journalist, blogger, and public speaker. She and her husband, Chris, have been married since 1998 and have five children.