

Fred Radford

Fred Radford successfully completed a 28-year training course in commercial construction as a sheet metal worker and then retired to pursue a more challenging career in theatre set construction. He has built sets for 12 Jessup Theatre productions starting with LITTLE WOMEN, and in addition, he has designed and built sets for over a dozen productions at Bridgeway Christian Church. He would like to thank all the students who helped with the set construction.