

Rob Gore

Rob Gore is an award-winning actor, director, designer, and filmmaker. His entertainment career spans over 40 years and includes work in film, television, and stage theatre. Some of his acting credits include feature films ABIGAIL (2023) and NO ADDRESS (2023). Other credits include HOPE FOR THE HOLIDAYS (2020), BEFORE THE DARK (2017), and Discovery Channel VR 360 film JAILBREAK (2016), and the TV show I (ALMOST) GOT AWAY WITH IT. Rob attained a Bachelors and Masters degree in Theatre Arts and has created designs for over 100 theatre productions. He worked many years for the Walt Disney Company, with one of his credits being a member of the original show crew that launched the long-running FANTASMIC show at Disneyland. Rob worked numerous production positions in film, television, and theatre in the "Hollywood" region before moving to Northern California to become a college Professor of Film and Theatre Arts. He retired from full-time teaching a few years ago but continues to participate in various roles in entertainment. A film he recently produced and directed won film festival awards for Best Film and Audience Favorite.
