

Tamra Rogers

Tamra Rogers was born and raised in the Bay Area, then spent 18 years in the beautiful Pacific Northwest before coming back "home" to California. Tamra holds a Bachelor of Arts in Music from William Jessup University. She has taught piano and voice for over 30 years, and currently owns and serves as Artistic Director for Tamraloo Studios, Placer County's largest performing arts studio. An accomplished collaborative pianist, choral conductor, vocal coach and music director, Miss Tamie has accompanied multiple church, community, and university choirs, as well as conducted children's and adult choruses in both the Pacific Northwest and Northern California and coached vocalists all over the area. She most recently lent her talents onstage as Judy Bernley in RCT's production of 9 TO 5 and as Musical Director offstage for Jessup's production of THE SCARLET PIMPERNEL and Vocal Director for LHS's production of LEGALLY BLONDE. Tamra is a multiple SARTA Elly award winner, for both her musical direction and performance roles, and she carols professionally as a soprano in the Merrie Olde Christmas Carolers. Tamie is passionate about community service and serves as a board member for the Downtown Lincoln Association, and member of Nawbo, Sorpotomists of Lincoln, Lincoln Fourth of July Committee, and more. She has led the last two reigning Miss Sac Outstanding Teens to victory as a vocal coach and her Tamraloo students and teachers lend their talents throughout Placer County and beyond.
