COMMENCEMENT

2025

Spring Commencement Program 2025

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Our Dear Graduates,

Just as Queen Esther in the Old Testament was reminded that she was placed in her role "for such a time as this", we believe that for you. You have received from people who love you, your professors and staff have poured into you, and you have learned and grown on the journey. And now, "for such a time as this".

We are trusting that you will carry the grace and kindness of Jesus into every atmosphere in which He sends you. In your roles as men or women, husbands or wives, fathers or mothers, and in whatever family and vocational assignment you experience, you carry His grace and kindness wherever you go. We know you have dreamed of this day, and your hard work has paid off. Now, we are believing for you to experience His dream for you in the everyday experiences of your life.

The truth is, you were made for a purpose. Our deepest desire is for you to have discovered your purpose here at Jessup and that you leave from here and go into His assignment for your life, confident in His calling and direction. Our prayers go with you, and we are believing that you will sense His presence in every dimension of your life.

Jesus loves you deeply, and so do we. Go out into the world and represent the Master as ambassadors of reconciliation and hope (2 Corinthians 5:17-21). We send you with this prayer:

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." (Romans 15:13)

In His Grace and For His Glory,

President John and Mrs. Pamela Jackson

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER - Dr. Ed Stetzer

Ed Stetzer is passionate about the Church, leadership, and helping others live out their faith in meaningful ways. He currently serves as the Dean and Professor of Leadership and Christian Ministry at Talbot School of Theology at Biola University. A few times a year, he also crosses the pond to teach at Oxford University, where he's a Distinguished Visiting Scholar at Wycliffe Hall.

Dr. Stetzer grew up in Levittown, New York, just outside of New York City. Raised Catholic on Long Island, his early experiences shaped a lifelong curiosity about faith and ministry. That journey led him to earn multiple graduate degrees—including a Doctor of Ministry from Beeson Divinity School and a Ph.D. from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Over the years, Ed has served in a wide range of roles—from pastoring and planting churches to leading research and training efforts for major Christian organizations. He's been the Executive Director of LifeWay Research, the Director of Research and Missiologist-in-Residence for the North American Mission Board, and the Executive Director of the Billy Graham Center at Wheaton College. Along the way, he's taught, trained, and mentored leaders on six continents.

An active writer and speaker, Ed is Editor-in-Chief of Outreach Magazine and a regular contributor to outlets like USA Today and CNN. He also hosts Ed Stetzer Live, a national radio show on Moody Radio.

Closer to home, Ed serves as Scholar in Residence and Teaching Pastor at Mariners Church. Whether in the classroom, behind a microphone, or preaching on Sunday, Ed is driven by a desire to equip the Church and its leaders for faithful, missional living in today's world.

JESSUP UNIVERSITY

Today's Commencement ceremony celebrates "What God has done, how awesome His works on our behalf!" (Psalm 66:5). As we celebrate the lives of our graduates, we rejoice at the privilege to share in His work in our history, in our graduates' lives and in the future lives they impact.

Jessup University has a rich heritage with humble beginnings dating back to the Great Depression era when Eugene Sanderson saw the need for a Bible college in the greater San Francisco Bay Area. He purchased two large houses across from what is now San Jose State University.

During the next five years, he prepared for the future by improving the property and building a chapel that served the faculty and student body for many years. In January of 1939, Sanderson asked William L. Jessup to carry on the vision and start the college. On September 19, 1939, San Jose Bible College was established with a class of just 14 students.

Over the years, the University has been served by five other presidents including Al Tiffin, Woody Phillips, Chuck Boatman, and Bryce Jessup. It was during Dr. Bryce Jessup's tenure that the school became regionally accredited by WSCUC and moved its main campus here in Rocklin in 2004, when the university's name was changed to William Jessup University. In 2022, a rebranding process unveiled the current name as Jessup University, to solidify and improve brand recognition within the Christian higher education market.

Dr. John Jackson serves as William Jessup University's sixth president. He holds a Ph.D. in Educational Administration and Organizational Studies from the University of California at Santa Barbara. His leadership has been marked with significant growth in numbers and reputation as we have simultaneously expanded facilities and program offerings to fulfill our mission in culture and in partnership with the church. Today, Jessup is a leading Christ-centered University and is leading innovation and change in multiple dimensions.

In the midst of today's celebration, we pause to reflect. We see God's faithful hand over eight decades. We celebrate the past, are grateful for the present, and are confidently expectant of our future. God is calling us to His future and we are leaning into His call!
